

British Association for Japanese Studies

Reflections on Politics, Law & Human Rights in Contemporary Japan

18 May 2013

Schedule

Ian Neary (University of Oxford) 13.30-14.10
Dowa Policy as a Japanese Approach to Human Rights

Mari Miura (Sophia University) 14.15-14.55
Contemporary Politics of Social Protection in Japan

Koichi Nakano (Sophia University) 15.00-15.40
Political Dynamics of Rightward Shift in Japan

Mark Fenwick (Kyushu University) 16.10-16.50
Experiencing Insecurity in Japan

Colin Jones (Doshisha University) 16.55-17.35
From Great Writ to Tuning Fork - How Japan's Judiciary Tamed Habeas Corpus

Location

The Hakubi Center for Advanced Research
iCeMS West Wing 2F, Seminar Room
Kyoto University

Event Organiser

Silvia Croydon (Kyoto University)
Email: croydon.silvia.6z@kyoto-u.ac.jp
Tel: 075-753-5315

BAJS Japan Branch Coordinator

Philip Seaton (Hokkaido University)
Email: seaton@oia.hokudai.ac.jp

Registration

Anyone interested is welcome to attend this event, and there is no formal registration requirement, so please feel free to simply turn up on the day. If you do plan to come, though, it would be helpful if you could indicate your interest in advance to the event organiser by email to croydon.silvia.6z@kyoto-u.ac.jp.

Support

The Hakubi Center for Advanced Research

