

UCL-IRDR Seminar 2017
Disaster in Japan 2011
 The Latest Research

FRIDAY 23 June 2017 9:30am - 1:15pm
 Open to all - admission free

Location: University College London, Roberts Building 106
 (Gower Street, London WC1E 6BT)

This event offers a keynote talk, and panel discussions and presentations on the latest Japanese disaster research. We welcome researchers, practitioners, NGOs, city professionals and members of the public to this international event.

Timetable

09:00-09:30 - Registration

09:30-09:45 - Welcome from the IRDR Director, Prof. Peter Sammonds

09:45-10:15 - Keynote talk by Professor Virginia Murray:

"Science for the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction"

10:15-11:30 - Panel Discussion 2011 EAST JAPAN EARTHQUAKE

Prof. Tiziana Rossetto (Engineering, UCL) Prof. Osamu MURAO (Tohoku University)

Prof. Shigeo TATSUKI (Doshisha University) Dr. Naoya SEKIYA (The University of Tokyo)

11:30-12:00 - Coffee break

12:00-13:15 - Special Panel DISASTER RESEARCH SPECIFIC ISSUES

Prof. Peter Sammonds (IRDR, UCL) Dr. Hideyuki SHIROSHITA (Kansai University)

Dr. Namiko MINAI (Japan Woman's University) Dr. Shohei BENIYA (University of Hyogo)

Chairpersons: Prof. David Alexander, UCL Prof. Kenji Koshiyama, Kansai University

Contact: Prof. Kenji Koshiyama (e-mail: k.koshiyama@ucl.ac.uk)