

5 - 6 September 2016
Newcastle University

King George VI Building,
School of Education, Communication
& Language Sciences
Queen Victoria Road, Newcastle, UK
NE1 7RU

UK-Japan Symposium on Intercultural Communication and International Universities

日英シンポジウム：グローバル大学と相互文化コミュニケーション

REGISTRATION

Attendance is free, but places are limited. Preference will be given to PhD students and early-career researchers with research interests in social interaction, international universities and/or intercultural communication. To apply to attend, please contact Adam Brandt (adam.brandt@ncl.ac.uk), providing a 200 word explanation of your suitability for the event, no later than Friday 29 July.

SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE

International students in the local culture

(10.30am - 12.50pm, Monday 5 September)

Intercultural communication among students

(2.00pm - 4.40pm, Monday 5 September)

Teaching and assessment in international universities

(10.30am - 12.50pm, Tuesday 6 September)

Extra-curricular support for international students

(2.00pm - 4.40pm, Tuesday 6 September)

JSPS

JSPS
UK & IRELAND

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Newcastle University

School of Education, Communication
and Language Sciences