

The Japan Foundation's Funding Opportunities for Research Visits to Japan

Neil Cantwell – Programme Officer for Japanese Studies and Intellectual Exchange

JAPANFOUNDATION

Japanese Studies Fellowship Programme

Who can apply?

Fields of Research = Humanities and Social Sciences

1. Scholars & Researchers 2–12 months
2. Doctoral Candidates 4–14 months
3. Short-term Researchers 21–60 days

Conditions of Eligibility: nationality, previous recipient, specific conditions.

Japanese Studies Fellowship Programme

What is provided?

- Airfare
- Settling-in / Departure Allowance
- Monthly stipend + dependent allowance, enrolment fees
- Insurance

Japanese Studies Fellowship Programme

How do I apply?

- Fellowships correspond to fiscal year, therefore next programme is April 2010–March 2011
- Deadline early December 2009
- Forms available September 2009

Other things to think about:

- Need for Japanese institution affiliation
- Clear idea of outcomes, article publication etc.

Other relevant programmes

- Support for Japanese Studies Organisations:
  - direct funding for UK Japanese Studies departments e.g. Staff Expansion, Library Support.
- Intellectual Exchange Conference Grant:
  - supporting collaborative, inter-disciplinary conferences with Japanese involvement or subject matter.

neil.cantwell@jpf.org.uk

JAPAN FOUNDATION