Project starting time

*Please note that the timeframe for calls is subject to change, check the JSPS London website for the latest information.

*When you apply to JSPS Tokyo, please note that the application periods and deadline above are for the head of the host institution to submit the applications to JSPS Tokyo. The time frames for host researchers to submit their applications to their institution are normally earlier. Therefore, Fellowship candidates must discuss their preparation schedules with their host researchers. Please also check each website for more details.
