

With the Rugby World Cup and the Tokyo Olympic and Paralympic Games coming up in 2019 and 2020, an increasing number of tourists as well as international students are choosing Japan as their destination. The day aims to provide information about various opportunities for graduates in teaching, studying and researching in Japan. This is the only event that takes place annually in the UK where participants can learn about diverse programmes in these fields.

Event details

Date: Thursday 24 May 2018, 13:00 – 16:30

Location: Embassy of Japan
101-104 Piccadilly, London W1J 7JT

Target audience

Academic as well as professional staff from Japanese departments, international and career offices of UK universities.

This event is not for students.

Registration is essential. Admission free.

Information booths (provisional)

Organisations

Embassy of Japan in the UK
Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS)
The Japan Foundation
Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation (DAJF)
The Great Britain Sasakawa Foundation

Universities

Keio University
Ritsumeikan University
University of Tokyo
Nara Institute of Science and Technology
Other universities*

*Handouts/leaflets only

Enquiries

Email: ukjet@ld.mofa.go.jp

To secure your place at this event, please reply to our e-mail address, including your name, job title, organisation name and e-mail address. Space is limited, so we shall operate on a first-come, first-served basis. We will provide an updated programme of the event to attendees closer to the date.

The closing date for registration is 11 May 2018.

If you can attend, please bring your confirmation email and a photo ID with you.

Agenda (provisional)

13:00 Registration

13:00 – 13:40 Refreshments and networking

13:40 Welcome remarks from the Japanese Embassy

13:45 “Internationalisation of education in Japan” by Mr Hiroshi Itakura, Education Attaché, the Japanese Embassy

14:00 “Research opportunities with Japan” by the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science

14:15 “Support for Japanese Language & Japanese Studies” by the Japan Foundation

14:30 “Daiwa Scholarships for study in and about Japan” by the Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation London

14:45 “Funding opportunities” by The Great Britain Sasakawa Foundation

15:00 – 15:45 Refreshments and networking

15:45 “The pursuit of study and research in Japan” by 2015-2017 MEXT scholar Mr Michal Gryko

16:00 Japan Exchange and Teaching Programme by the JET desk, the Japanese Embassy

16:30 Close

